Going Bananas

Spirit Week aroused excitement on the Pirate campus before the big game - Homecoming! Pizza gobblers and malt slurpers were able to show off their skills in class competitions while students packed in by the hundreds to watch. The Wacky Olympics were their annual success with Pirates crowded into bleachers to watch students and teachers show-off their tricycling and three-legged running abilities among others. The week was truly full of spirit.

Varsity Song and Varsity Yell celebrated the thrill of victory and helped build pride and spirit among fellow Pirates throughout the year. For the first time PHS had an official mascot. Both groups, including the mascot, attended Hibbard's camp at Loyola College during the summer, at which Varsity Yell took a second place. The cheerleaders practiced daily to prepare for football, basketball, and wrestling seasons. Varsity Song was chosen to perform at the Rams' Game. All Right!

Because of the lack of a Soph football team, both JV and Soph squads cheered on the JV football team. Besides yelling "Fight, Pirates, Fight!" they had a bake sale and car wash in order to raise money to go to clinics and competition. For the first time, the girls on JV and Varsity were selected by combining the students' votes with the judges scores. Soph yell was selected strictly by judges.

They Add Color

All Pirate Pennanteers' routines were created by Co-captains Leann Gronos and Cathy Casto. This year they changed from the military manner of previous years to a freer style with more hand movements and kicks. For the first time, they performed for PHS at an assembly. The majorettes, led by Head Tammie Zingg, performed at halftime shows and helped JV Yell cheer on the JV football team. They practiced after school to get ready for competition and parades.

1. Majorettes (front to back): Head Tammie Zingg, Janet Wardle, Dawnella Bushey.
2. Pirate Pennanteers fall into half-splits during an assembly for PHS students. They helped to promote spirit and add color to the band.
3. Pirate Pennanteers (top left to bottom): Glynise White, Debbie Baylie, Patricia Vasques, Marie Fernandez, Co-captain Cathy Casto, Rosemarie Salazar, Eileen Brashear. (middle to top): Cathy Walter, Pam Seymore, and Captain Leann Gronos.
4. Majorette Tammie Zingg finds she is the center of some halftime humor.
5. Banner Carriers Leann Gronos and Pam Seymore with majorettes during pre-game activities at the Downey game. Pirates went on to defeat the Vikings 26 to 19.

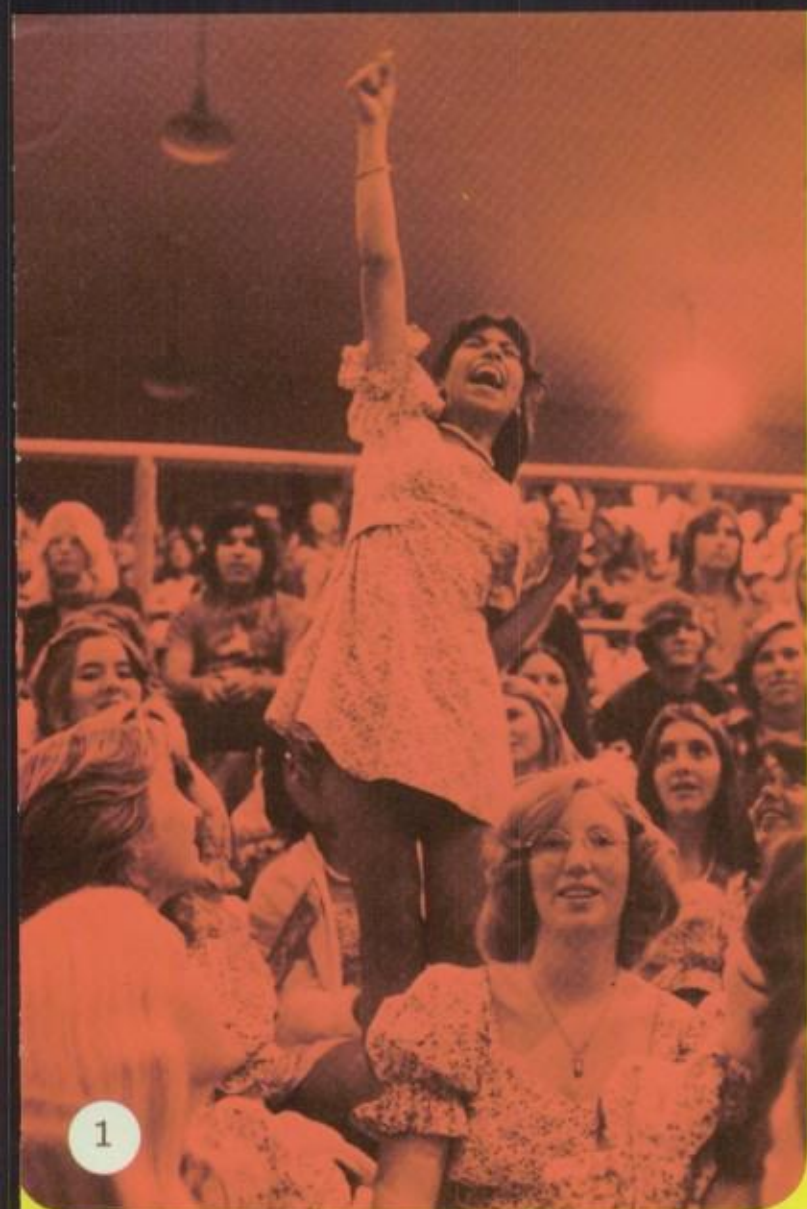

1. Shirley Mees in the spotlight shows her jubilant spirit during the hillbilly show. Drill Team worked for hours to perfect such straight kicks!

Baby, Take a Bow!

Being in Drill Team was more than just the glory of performing at halftimes, the thrill of cheering in the stands, and the excitement of being involved. It was a lot of hard work! Work that turned out as shows like "Spirit of America," "Hill-billy Jamboree," and the traditional "School Songs."

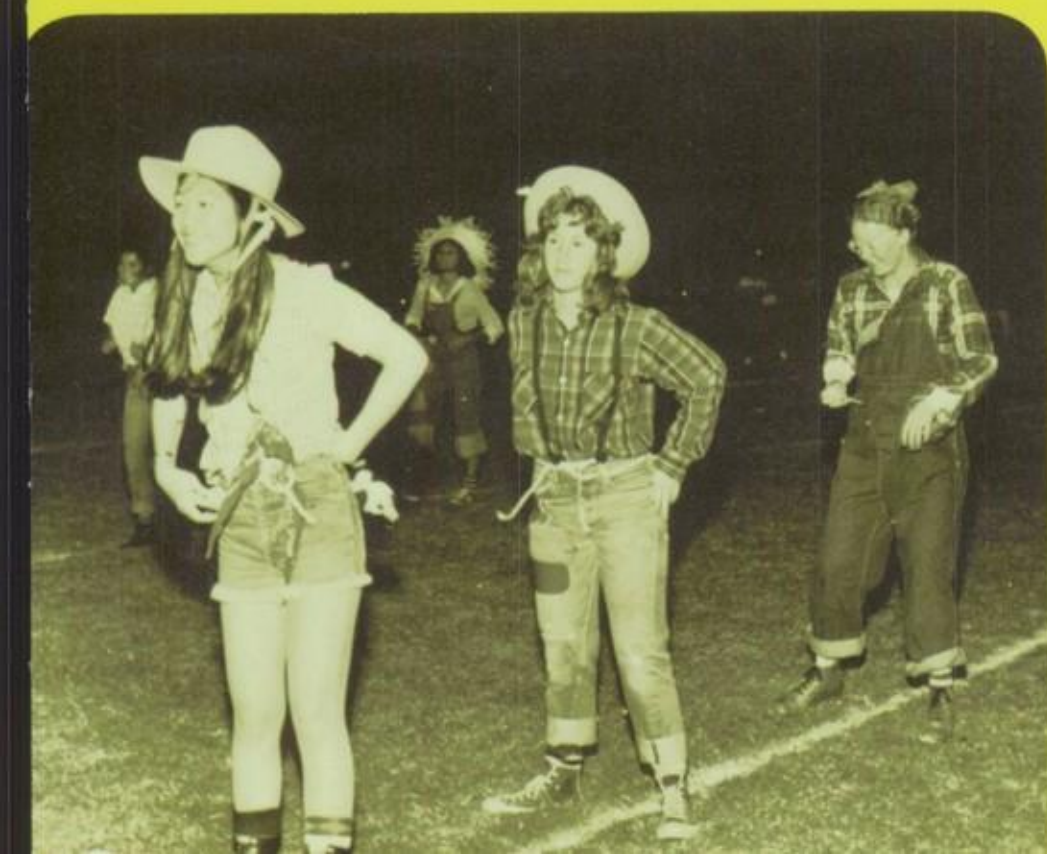

1. Freshman Teresa Salazar shows real spirit as she cheers her class on to victory in the spirit jug competition. Drill Team promotes individualism as well as group participation.

2. Practice makes perfect and Drill Team practices long hours to provide entertainment for all home games.

3. Sandy Murashima, Sharon Lamphear, and Pam Barber wait patiently to perform a toe-tap-pin routine to "She'll be Comin' 'Round the Mountain" during the hillbilly show.

They Work Together

Band, Drill Team and Pirate Pennateers were successful this past year in making halftime shows both colorful and entertaining. With a lot of hours of hard work and practice, their shows were near perfection. There is a feeling of pride in being a Pacette, band member or a Pirate Pennateer.

1. During a rally, sax player Kyle Smith and Linda Rosa concentrate on their parts.
2. Drill Team does more than perform at half-time; they also share in the cheering at rallies.
3. Vicki Lunney and Sharon Rosa in hillbilly finery for halftime show.
4. Pacettes and band members perform at half-time of game with Warren.

2. Drum Major, Jerry Davis.

3. Clarinet players take it easy as they play, "Cowboy Joe."

4. Drum Major, Ane Astredo.

5. Pep Band helps give spirit at away games with traditional school songs.

The symphonic winds class also showed their talents during the year. Performing at PTA, the Christmas Program, their own concert and at a Music Festival, they proved that PHS has its share of musicians.

"Easy Side Up" and "The Stripper" were among a number of songs that helped stage band members receive a little more recognition this year than in the past. Performing at rallies, PTA programs and basketball games, they entertained with a wide variety of musical selections.

1. Director of symphonic winds and concert band, Mr. Clinton Sawin.

NOT SHOWN: Phillip Ackerman.

They Live Music

Choir, Orchestra, and Girls' Glee filled many empty hours with music this past year. They not only made music, they lived music. PHS students felt fortunate to have these three outstanding groups. Each group performed in many programs; the best remembered were the Christmas programs and the Spring Festival.

1. Mr. Clinton Sawin, director of the Orchestra, helps the group provide many fine performances.

2. David Winn, Cecil Avery, Phillip Ackerman, and Dana Pierce make up PHS's "first chair" quartet. This group has been well accepted at all their performances.

1. Mr. James DeBolske leading the choir during one of their rehearsals. Mr. DeBolske believes everyone can sing if he puts his heart and voice into it.

2. Mrs. Joyce Sinclair adds a special touch as she accompanies the Choir and Girls Glee during all rehearsals and performances.

Yearbook Staff Celebrates!

"Celebrate!" was the theme chosen to unify this year's book, commemorating the Bicentennial. After much debate, the staff voted to use a laminated picture of our Pirate on the cover. Each section of the staff chose layout designs and graphic effects to individualize their pages. The parchment pages were special for the creative section and the ending.

1. Sandy Murashima looking over work as Kathy Moody and Debbie Sharp work on their pages.
2. "Your puppy ate your lay-out?" exclaims Cyndy Helzer as she listens to a staff member's explanation for not turning in his work.
3. 1975-76 Jolly Roger staff.
4. Photographer Eric Matsumoto will do anything to get a picture for yearbook.
5. Advisor, Mrs. Jennie James, looks happily at the staff as she realizes the work is done for the year.
6. Some section editors were Eric Matsumoto, Kristy Hopson, Donna Blackman, Ane Astredo, and Steve Smith.
7. Eileen Brashear looks to Mrs. James for advice, as Donna Blackman, Cyndy Helzer and she work late at night to try to make a deadline.
8. Yearbook staff celebrated the Bicentennial by dressing in red, white, and blue clothing.

Porthole Striving for Better Coverage

Highlighting this year for Porthole was their effort to provide better sports coverage. They included many action shots and tried to make copy more vivid. This year the staff was larger, as it was their second year to accept freshmen to work on the staff. Editor-in-chief was Valerie Lucas, and Mr. Benjamin Dodd served as advisor.

1. Some section editors are Forrest Towers, Albert Peon, Shirleen Cantrell, Norman Tucker, and Anna Garcia.
2. Editor Valerie Lucas and advisor, Mr. Benjamin Dodd.
3. 1975-76 Porthole staff.
4. More section editors are Shirleen Cantrell, Jeanie Deese, Ray Gutierrez, Editor-in-chief Valerie Lucas, and Anna Garcia.
5. Working on football programs is Debbie Sharp, head of production staff.
6. Approving layouts is Mr. Lester Lundeen, advisor for production staff.
7. 1975-76 Production staff.
8. Photographers for Porthole this year are Joe Burke and Steve Biondo.

1. Kathy Robertson and Tina Bilawa use their free time to have a friendly conversation.
2. During Spirit Week, enthusiastic seniors shout at winning the Spirit Jug. At many rallies, seniors took the honor of being the most spirited.
3. The privilege of walking through Senior Square is exercised by Virginia Gonzales and Alora Fiala.
4. Sandy Murashima is lifted off her feet by Neil Chitwood in celebration of graduation.
5. College bound students Kim Hull, Mark Biri, and Eileen Brashear take time to correct vocabulary in English IV-Honors.
6. Trees frame Eric Matsumoto as he concentrates on homework. Students often took time to enjoy the school's landscape.

Wally Reed was one of the recipients of the Jack Robinson Leadership Award for 1976. He was active as ASB president and was involved in many activities. Among them were CSF, Campus Life, ICC, and Key Club. He was elected to Boys' State and was also on the freshman and sophomore basketball teams.

Both runners-up were a great asset to the Class of '76. Dale Boyd, who was senior class vice-president and on the Principal's Honor Roll, was busy with senior activities. He was also on the JOLLY ROGER staff and in CSF. While at PHS, Dale played freshman and sophomore football and also was on J.V. and Varsity Wrestling teams.

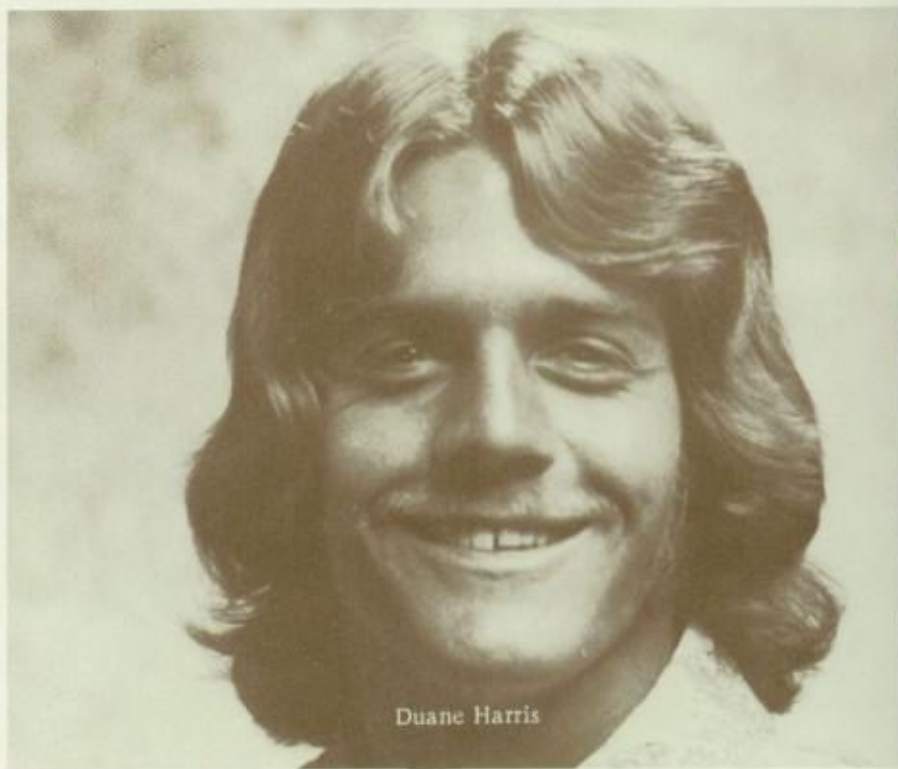

Duane Harris was active in student government at PHS. He was Frosh and Sophomore vice-president and the Senior class president. Duane was a good athlete while playing freshman and sophomore basketball. On the soph football team he was chosen Most Inspirational. He also played J.V. and Varsity football.

Leaders of '76

Vicki Hooper, the other recipient of the Jack Robinson Leadership Award, was well liked by PHS students. Commissioner of Rallies was one of her offices in ASB. Keeping PHS students interested at rallies was one of her specialties. Song was among Vicki's activities. She was in Pep Club and GAA.

Patricia Clack, a runner-up, was involved in many activities. She served as Commissioner of Entertainment and Junior and Senior class representative. Being in Campus Life and Girl's League kept her busy.

Another runner-up was Francie Casey. She was involved in government as Freshman vice-president, Sophomore class council, Junior and ASB secretary. Francie was also active in yell, and she was a Homecoming Princess.

Bicentennial Brains

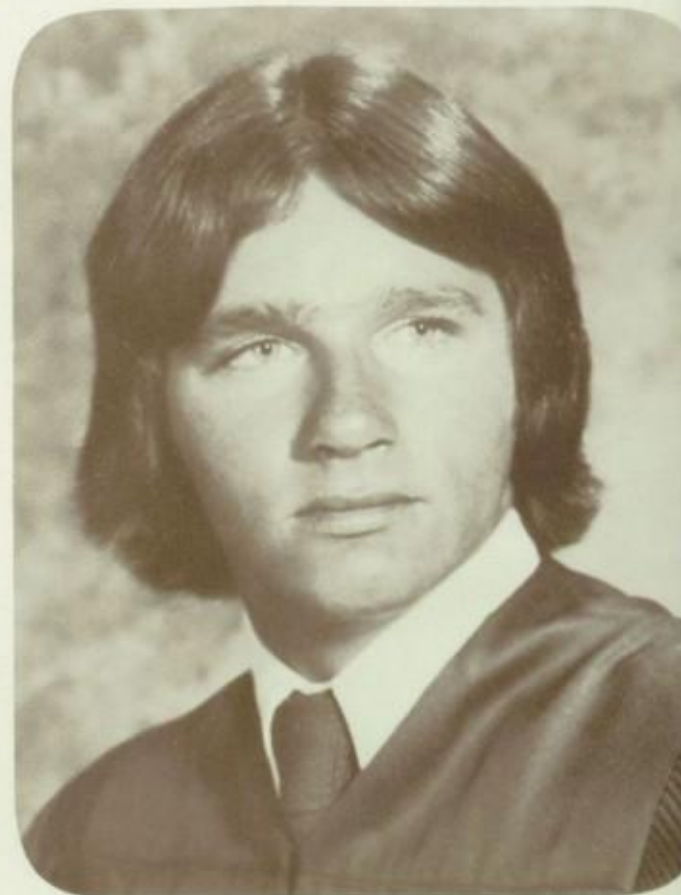

The highest honor that seniors can achieve is being valedictorian, the top ranked student of the senior class, or salutatorian, the second highest. The duty of each is to deliver a speech at commencement exercises to the graduating class. These students attain the distinction from their grade-point-average.

Tami Hayworth was named co-valedictorian by achieving a grade-point-average of 4.0 throughout her four years at PHS. Tami was president of Letterettes, a Life Member of CSF, Co-captain of Varsity Softball and Varsity Basketball and a member of the Varsity Volleyball team. Tami was also a member of Girls' League and GAA and received the Youth Appreciation Award.

Cyndy Helzer was also named co-valedictorian for maintaining her straight A average for four years. She was active in organizations, such as Corsaires, vice-president; Wilderness Ecology Club, secretary and historian; Campus Life, president; CSF, vice-president and Gold Seal Bearer. Cyndy was also Editor-in-chief of the yearbook and an exchange student to Mexico.

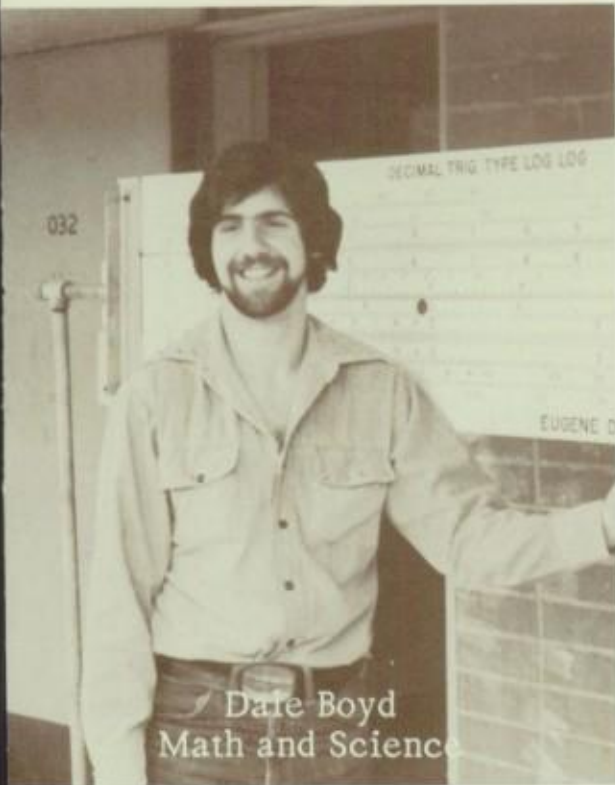

Gary LeFevre was named salutatorian for maintaining a grade-point-average of 3.98. He was on Varsity Basketball and a Life member of CSF.

The Best

Just to be nominated for the Bank of America award is a great honor. Each department selected their outstanding students to be interviewed by a panel of judges, who chose ten certificate winners and four plaque winners. Dale Boyd was awarded the plaque for Math and Science, Denise Reed for Vocational Arts, Sandy Murashima for Liberal Arts and Susan Gwin for Fine Arts. These students were eligible for large scholarships if they won in higher competition.

Uncle Gene on the Green Scene

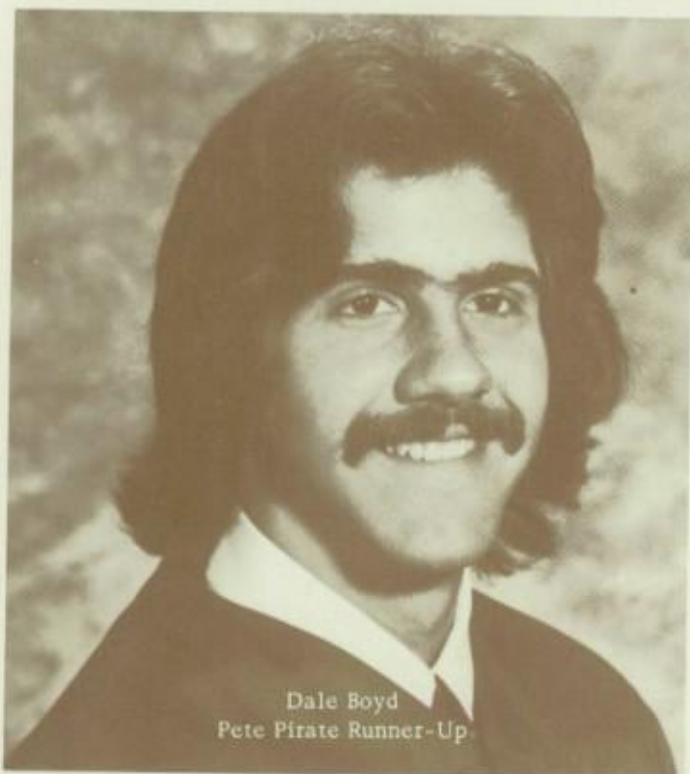

Mr. Gene Myers has become one of the most widely known teachers for his leadership in the field of Wilderness Ecology. He has been past president of Paramount Teachers Association; he organized and was leader of our school's Summer Backpacking program. He was even a professional driver in marathon boat racing and placed third in the world. When asked why he organized the Wilderness Ecology Club and Summer Backpacking program, he stated, "To provide an opportunity for the youth of this area to experience visiting a wilderness environment that is not readily accessible to many. I was also concerned that the programs that were being offered that provided these experiences were very expensive and available only to the affluent."

1. Denise Reed, Betty Crocker Award winner.
2. Gail Robichaud, class flirt.
3. Duane Harris, best smile, most spirited; Jill Smith, best eyes; Francie Casey, friendliest, best personality; Wally Reed, best dressed, friendliest.
4. FRONT ROW: Tami Hayworth, most athletic. TOP ROW: Mike Weisenburger, best eyes, cutest guy; Betty Fisher, shyest girl; Fred Craft, shyest guy.

Pete Pirate

Wally Reed was selected as Pete Pirate by the Class of '76. Wally was our ASB President and was involved in many activities such as Campus Life, ICC, Key Club, and CSF. He was elected to Boys' State and was a member of the Freshman and Sophomore Basketball teams. He was also on the Principal's Honor Roll.

Mark Taft, a runner-up for Pete Pirate, was Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds and a member of CSF, Key Club, and Varsity Club. Mark was on the JV Baseball team and both the JV and Varsity Wrestling teams. He was also on the Principal's Honor Roll.

Dale Boyd, a runner-up for Pete Pirate, was the Senior Class Vice President, a member of the Jolly Roger Staff, and was in CSF. Dale was on the Frosh and Soph Football teams and the JV and Varsity Wrestling teams. He was also on the Principal's Honor Roll.

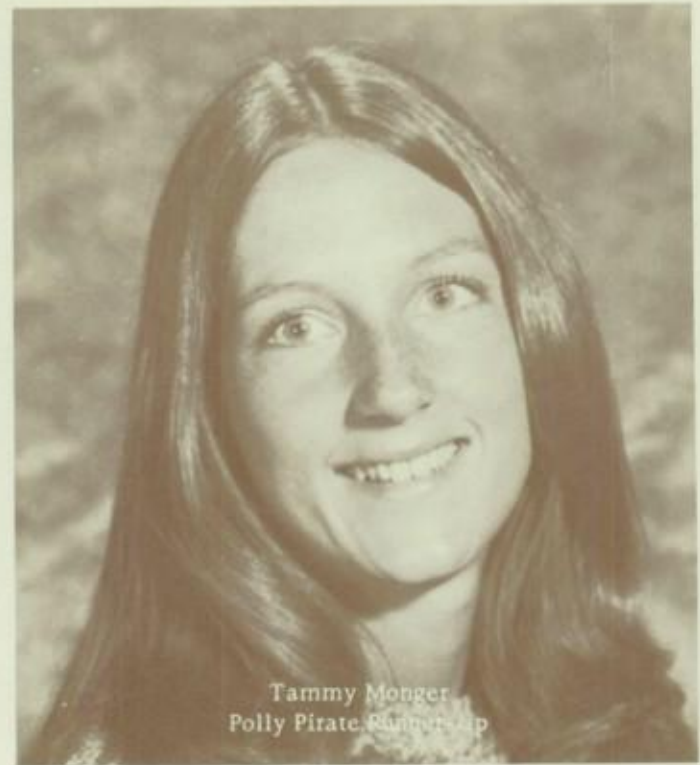

Tom Risky, a runner-up for Pete Pirate, was in CSF, Campus Life, and Varsity Club. He was elected to Boys' State, was on the Principal's Honor Roll, and was on the Frosh Baseball and Basketball teams. He was captain of the Varsity Basketball and Cross Country team and also was on the Varsity Track team and JV Golf team.

This celebration of our Bicentennial helped the Pirates to learn what it really means to be an American. We showed our spirit, enthusiasm and patriotism for our beloved country, and it helped to make 1976 a memorable year.

Seniors Pick Pete and Polly

Patricia Clack, selected as Polly Pirate by the Class of '76, was elected because of her participation in such activities as ASB, Girls' League, Campus Life, and Corsaires. She was active in student government, being a class representative for four years. She served as Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds and Commissioner of Entertainment. Patricia was also a member of the Pacettes and was on the Principal's Honor Roll.

Tammy Monger, a runner-up for Polly Pirate, showed outstanding leadership and was active in many clubs such as Pep Club, Corsaires, Campus Life, Girls' League, and CSF. She was on class council for four years and was secretary of her senior class. She was on yell as a sophomore, junior and senior and was head of yell as a junior. She was also on the Principal's Honor Roll.

Vicki Hooper, a runner-up for Polly Pirate, showed her spirit by participating in many school activities. She was a member of Girls' League, ASB, Campus Life, and Pep Club. She was selected as a Girls' State representative and as a junior was a member of the Girls' Varsity Basketball team. She was also on varsity song.

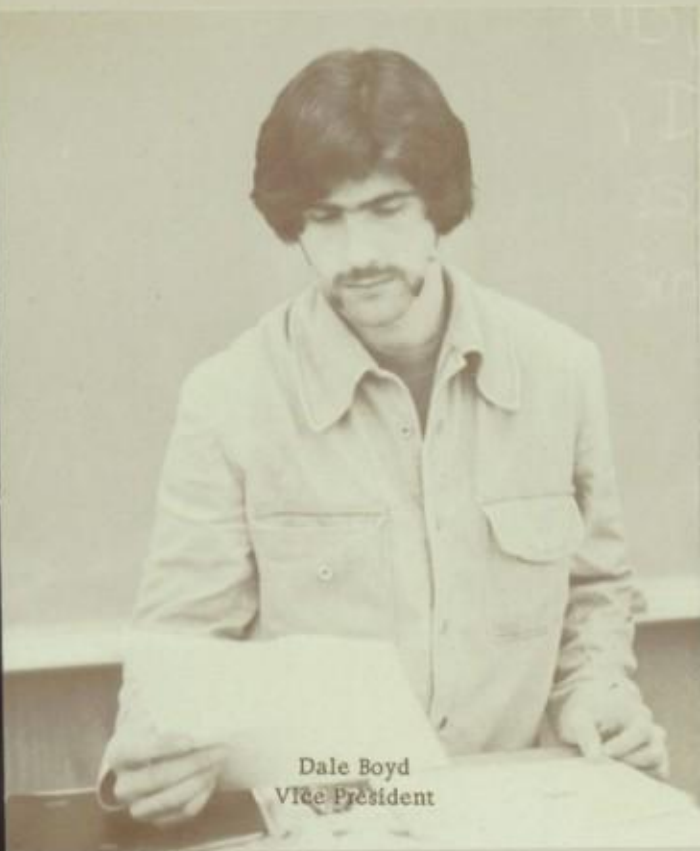

Seniors Salute Bicentennial

Through well organized fund-raising projects that brought a dazzling prom and exciting activities, the class of '76 was able to give lasting memories to its spirited members. Having won the Cool Stool for three years in a row and the Spirit Stick twice, the Seniors proved that they deserved the title, Spirit of '76.

Charge!

Pep squads, drill team members, tennis and basketball players, wrestlers, as well as leadership groups and yearbook editors went to summer camps and workshops. Though the camps were located in different places and some even in different states, they all were striving to enable the participants to excel in their own fields. Pirates formed new friendships with people they met from other schools, some as far away as Colorado.

What a problem! But it was no sweat for those "brains" in Math Analysis. The class, consisting of a record-breaking three students, was combined with the College Algebra/Trig course, taught by Mr. Richard Gerhold, their erudite mentor. Throughout the year the two classes worked on different theories but occasionally covered the same material together.

1. Mr. Richard Gerhold helps Steve Smith with a complicated algebra problem. Steve graduated at the semester leaving Susan Gwin and Sandy Murashima in the Math Analysis class.

2. Sandy Murashima, Steve Smith and Susan Gwin review homework assignments while waiting for Mr. Gerhold.

New Spirit Jug Works Wonders

More people attended assemblies and rallies than ever before, mainly because of the Spirit Jug competition. Each class yelled out Pirates, and the loudest group earned the jug. The Halloween assembly was a big hit this year with seniors Hector Gamez and Virginia Gonzales taking first place in the costumes. "Papa Du Run Da Run" was also a big hit.

Experiencing the Future

Experiencing the future is just what the students are doing when they enroll in the Work Experience Education program. Work Experience is made available to Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors, at least sixteen years old, who are working and earning a wage from a bonafide employer. It enables them to get a head start on their future.

2. Brenda Meyer, first runner-up, displays her creative talent. Brenda performed a striking hat and stool routine in "Cabaret."
3. Vanessa Jackson posing during the Poise and Appearance portion of the program. Vanessa won three trophies: Youth fitness, Spirit of Junior Miss, and the Creative and Performing Arts.
4. '75 Junior Miss, Sherry Hyten, and '76 Junior Miss, Susan Gwin, pose for pictures after the program. Susan attended the State Contest in Santa Rosa in February.

Gwin's Win

An experience six PHS senior girls will never forget was the Paramount Junior Miss program sponsored by the Paramount Jaycees. This program was designed to reward senior girls for their outstanding achievements in various fields. Each girl was judged on Poise and Appearance, Scholastic Achievement, Youth Fitness, Creative and Performing Arts Presentation, and a Judges Interview.

Hey, It's Cool!

"We're the Seniors, couldn't be prouder, and if you can't hear us, we yell a little louder!" This was the yell with which the Seniors became the only class in PHS history to win the Cool Stool three years in a row. While at Paramount they were twice the proud winners of the Spirit Stick, a feat which only a few classes have achieved. Seniors won several other contests during Spirit Week such as the pizza-eating contest and the relay races. The Class of '76 proved to be one of the most spirited classes ever at PHS.

A Time to Rejoice!

Heavy coats, scarves and mittens brought the '75 Christmas season to PHS. Everywhere you turned there was Christmas; caroling, exchanging gifts, programs, and club parties were all a big part of the celebration. But it wasn't complete 'til the seniors placed the traditional Christmas tree in Senior Square.

One of the long awaited and surely the most formal events of the year was the Senior Prom. The Class of '76 chose the Marriott Hotel to be the site for the big event, which was held on April 30 at 8:00 p.m. As guests arrived, they drove to the door where their cars were parked by the Marriott's parking attendants. After a fine dinner the Senior Class and their dates danced until 1:00 a.m.

Something New, Something Blue

New, blue and beautiful lockers, more than 1500 of them, were given to Pirates by the City of Paramount and installed during Christmas vacation. Each student was given the option of receiving a locker and choosing his partner. They were tamper proof with no air vents to reduce the possibility of locker fires. Gates at the end of each locker section discourages vandalism. Mrs. Claudette Stevenson, who was in charge of lockers, commented, "If students take pride in these new lockers and don't abuse them, maybe the city will give us some more new and better things."

Good bye . . .

The Class of '76 said goodbye to PHS after four years of hard work and much fun. They left behind two Spirit Sticks and three Cool Stools.

The Senior Class looked forward to graduation; however, there were mixed emotions when it arrived. There were tears of sadness and tears of joy, but most seniors were sorry to leave PHS.

1. "This is Senior Square! Underclassmen beware!" The tradition of Senior Square has been with Paramount since the school began, and all underclassmen are persuaded to avoid setting foot on this sacred soil.

2. Two graduates walking through Senior Square for the last time as Paramount High students.

3. The marquee in front of Paramount High reminding Seniors of graduation day.

4. Debbie Sharp and David Miranda kick back after graduation to discuss events of their last year at PHS.

Where Do We Go From Here?

After crowds in Senior Square had gone and the year's activities ended, what would come next for the Class of '76? Narene Falkner had planned to marry in two years, but in the meantime she would attend junior college. Cyndy Chase wanted to go to Long Beach State. Sharon Barhite was going to be married and also wanted to become a secretary. Kathy Moody planned to become a bookkeeper. The beginning of a new way of life was here.

Juniors Show Their Pride

The Class of '77, consisting of about 460 strong, displayed the enthusiasm necessary to capture this year's Spirit Stick. The class played an active role in school activities. They sponsored soc hops and successfully sold candy canes and caramel apples. They also sponsored the girls inter-class basketball and football games. The money was for their senior activities.

Outside Fun

Many pirates involved themselves in activities outside of school-sponsored ones. One example is Karen Wilson, Leslie Oppgard, and Stacy Turner, who went to Albuquerque to participate in the National Arabian Horse Show. Karen placed within the top six in her classification. They also traveled throughout the Southland to enter competition during the year. Many Pirates participate in such outside activities as the Drum and Bugle Corps, ice skating, and photography.

Planning Now

Some of the vocational programs offered at PHS were Vocational Child Care, Vocational Medical Assistants, the Regional Occupation Program, the Neighborhood Youth Corps, and a variety of shop classes such as wood, metal, electric, and auto mechanics. There was also a variety of business courses available. Among them were Business Machines, Bookkeeping and Typing I and II. The courses provided good experience for the students who took advantage of them.

Juniors Ring With Activities

1. The Halloween celebration at PHS brought Gina Fenner and Shirley Mees back to school as Mouseketeers from the 50's. Many other Pirates came to school in some very "strange" costumes to help celebrate the arrival of Pumpkin Day.
2. Inson Ham and Tom Courange relax in the happy atmosphere of the Homecoming Dance.
3. The classical school rings are a common sight on the hands of many juniors.

It was a big decision for the juniors to choose between the school ring and the class ring. After that selection was made came the long, agonizing wait for them to arrive. But all went well and the rings arrived in time for the proud juniors to show them off at the Halloween festival and with all their finery at the Homecoming Dance.

Changing Science Program

New textbooks updated some of the science classes this year, and ninth graders found a survey course had been added for them. Sophomores, as well as eleventh and twelfth graders, were allowed to sign up for biology.

1. Students listen to explanations and work on their assignments in chemistry.
2. Coach Paul Castillo calling cadence in boys' P.E.
3. Students study hard in Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson's first-period chemistry class.

Sophomores Can't Be Stopped

Over a hundred new sophomores enrolled at PHS making the Class of '78 total 610. The class council sponsored soc-hops after games and also made plans to order class rings and sweaters. There were many sophomores active on the JV and Varsity levels of sports and in other activities making this year a memorable one for all.

We've Only Just Begun to Win.

The Class of '79 started the year by sponsoring soc-hops. For the Homecoming game and Spirit Week, they sold balloons. They later sold Valentine suckers. Freshmen also enjoyed getting the new lockers. Sports were a big part of freshman life as they had a great football team and the frosh basketball team proved to be one of the most impressive in the school's history.

Showing renewed interest in the French language, freshmen brought the course back into the schedule at PHS. With Mrs. Alice Newton as instructor, the students greeted each other in French, recited dialogs, and each did a project on French culture. They concentrated on practicing the language of everyday situations.

Leaders Set Goals

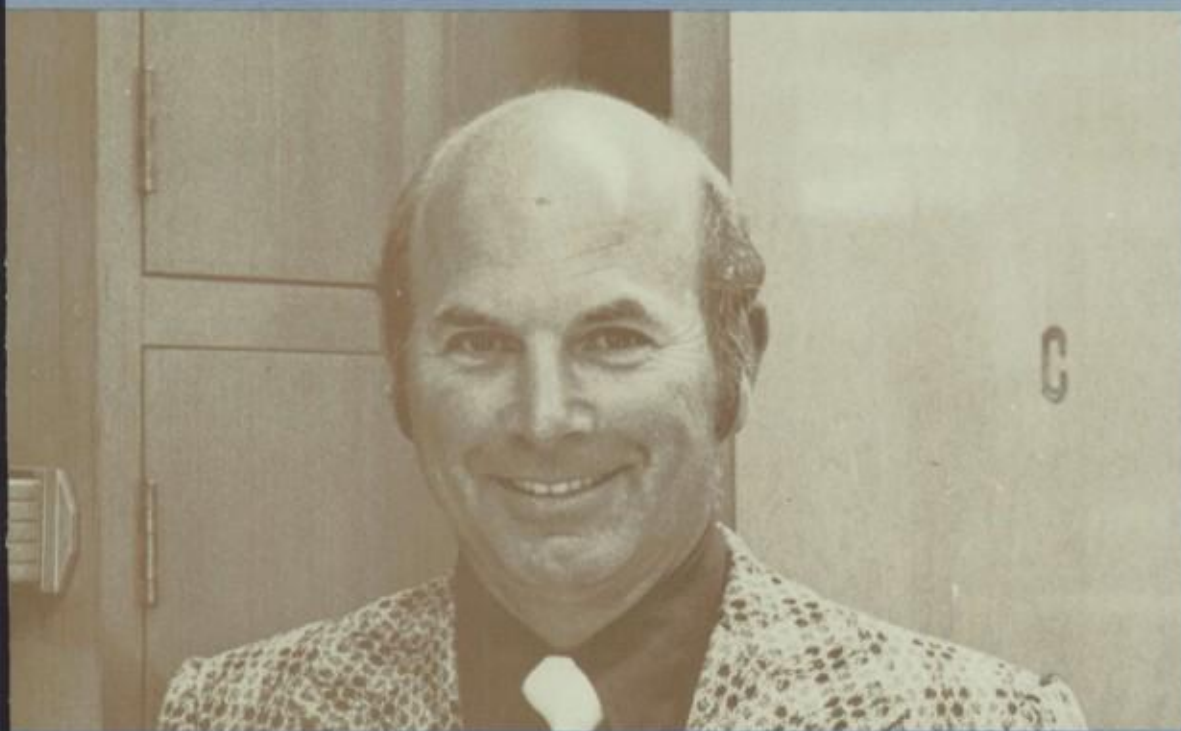

One of Mr. Richard Caldwell's goals for this year was to get the school accredited for another five years to enable the students of PHS to attend the colleges of their choice. Because of vandalism, he hoped to see new lockers installed with locking gates around them. Another goal for the year was to get the school changed from the San Gabriel Valley League to the Suburban League in order to have Pirates competing in sports with schools that are the same size as PHS and stand a better chance for a winning season. Plans for the year also included programs for the improvement of basic skills in reading and math.

When Mr. Caldwell was asked, "What do you expect out of the year '75-'76?" he replied, "Lots more spirit and having all races and religions get along." Tennis and golf are Mr. Caldwell's hobbies.

1. Mr. Richard Caldwell awards necklace to Vicki Hooper, one of the homecoming semi-finalists.

Mr. Douglas Rozelle, now in his third year as assistant principal, hoped to see a successful athletic program the year of '75-76. Mr. Rozelle was in charge of boys' discipline and suspensions and was the director of athletics. Some of his hobbies were camping, fishing, hunting, and motorcycling.

Mrs. Willie Lou Bengston, now in her second year as vice-principal at PHS, handles girls' discipline, attendance, guidance, needs and complaints of teachers, and making grounds and buildings comfortable for both students and teachers. Before becoming vice-principal, Mrs. Bengston had been a counselor for 18 years. Some of Mrs. Bengston's hobbies were sewing, traveling, entertaining, and dancing.

Mr. Dennis Deneve, who was in charge of the activities program at PHS, was pleased to have more space made available for the activities office in the building which was moved from the Wirtz campus. Mr. Deneve, who taught six years before coming to PHS, had as hobbies building models and miniatures and flying his plane.

PHS Adds Two New Counselors

PHS added two new men to the counseling staff this year, Mr. Rudy Carpio, and Mr. Jack Mahone. They worked with Mr. Austin Harper, head counselor; Mr. Phil Burik, ROP counselor; Mrs. Margaret Brush, Mr. Lee Cooper, and Mr. Richard Orcutt. The counselors succeeded in getting better acquainted with the students; Mr. Orcutt saw each senior twice.

Title VII Here

The non-English speaking students have found it easier to learn because of the Title VII Project here at PHS. With the help of instructional aides, the students are learning English as well as typing, math, and social science. The courses are taught in the student's own language as well as in English. The students enjoy the individual help they receive.

A Helping Hand

Cafeteria workers came in early every morning to prepare nutritious meals for PHS students. When meal time came, so did the crowd. They served approximately 1900 students. Corn Dogs were a popular item added to the menu this year. The custodians do their share of keeping the campus clean for the Pirates. The main responsibility of the campus supervisors was to keep intruders from disrupting school or harming students.

CAFETERIA WORKERS: Esther Escalaredo, Margaret Duncan, Catherine Medford, Marta Verkamp, manager; Mary Stewart, Carol Pace, Gertrude Bowers, Agnes Riethik, Judy Massie.

CUSTODIANS: Phil Billings, Joe Cosery, Wes Sheffield, student worker; Joe Clifford.

The Pirates came back this year with three wins - more than they have had in the past three years totaled. The basis of the Pirates' success was the unity of the team. In the first pre-seasoner, the Pirates lost to Canyon, 21 to 13, but came back in the next game to demolish Schurr, 21 to 6. Opening league play by bowing down to Norwalk Lancers, 19-14, the Pirates again came back in the next game to beat Downey in a hard won battle, 26 to 19. The Pirates then went to Lynwood where the Knights used their superior speed to defeat Paramount 21 to 13. The Pirates lost their next two games to Warren, 12 to 7, and to La Mirada, 7 to 0. Next was the Pirates' Homecoming, which proved to be the gem of the season. In a tough game, the Pirates defeated the Cerritos Dons in the last quarter with a field goal by Mike Rodriguez, making the score 15 to 14. This was an important win for Pirate fans. Paramount ended league by losing to Bellflower. Neil Hyta was named most valuable player.

Warming Up for Varsity

The J.V. team looked strong this year. With a short turnout for the sophomore team, the sophs joined with the J.V.'s. In one of the highlights of the season was the game against La Mirada when Pirates pulled out a winning touchdown in the closing minutes. Even though the team was short of players, they had a good season.

1. Rick Courange runs for a 20 yard gain in the game against Cerritos.
2. Mike Matyus on the fourth down decides to kick the ball to the Pirates back into their own territory.
3. Kevin Rainere, receiving a pass, pierces through defensive line of Cerritos to gain yardage for Pirates.

Young Pirates Do It!

The Freshman Football team kicked off its '75 season with a good turnout. New freshmen head Coach Don Villella and his assistants, Mike Forsland and Bob Russel, helped point the way for the young Pirates. There were over 45 freshmen who worked hard for a good season. But it paid off when the frosh pulled out a 6-2 season in the S.G.V.L. The Frosh put it all together.

1. Jerico Toillolo and Coach Don Villella talk over the next move.

2. Jerico Toillolo passes to No. #77 in Cerritos game.

3. Byron Wessel blocks for Raymond Rodriguez, who gains yardage for the Pirates to beat Downey 21 to 6.

Ace to Deuce

Although the season record of wins and losses was disappointing, there were good performances by individuals. Terry Schelling and Susan Durand gained second place in the San Gabriel Valley League finals and went on to play in C.I.F. This year the girls had the help and encouragement of Mr. Paul Castillo besides that of Miss Marcella Schug, who was head coach. Terry Schelling, Susan Durand and Dottie Russell received awards.

Ritt's Runtz Scare Many

Although the varsity team was short on height this year, they were not short on ability or spirit, for they gave the other teams a run for their money. Even when Paramount was behind, the varsity players did not give up. Al Alcaraz was the leading scorer this year, and Tom Risky led in rebounds. Next year there will be four returning lettermen: Randy Burwell, Johnny Gonzales, Keith and Ken Korver.

1. Keith Korver steals ball from Cerritos opponent as Gary LeFevre and John Blas watch hopefully.
2. Al Alcaraz scores two points. Al improved his record to make him the third highest scorer in SGVL.

United We Stand, Divided We Fall

Rounding out the season with a record of 8-6 in league, the JV team finished strong. This year's team had good height, showed superior depth in their bench, and had the spirit and determination to win. Leading the team were Paul Anderson, John Harris, Rick Jones, Rick Lee, Mike Matyus, John McCracken, and John Welliver. Mr. Al Herring was the coach. The traditional marathon was the main fund-raiser in sending the players to basketball camp.

Super Sophs Take League!

Winning the SGVL Championship with a record of 12-2, the Sophomore Basketball team showed outstanding talent while demolishing some opponents by incredibly lopsided margins. In the Norwalk game, the Pirates defeated the Lancers to the tune of 96 to 30. Leading the team were Scott Rees, Roger Fopma, John Jackson, John Douglas, Art Bouck, Dan Breatchel and Art Enriquez. The title came as a result of a total team effort. It was only Mr. Millard Thacker's second year as head coach, and he's looking forward to having another great team next year.

Frosh Have Power Too!

Finishing third with a 10-4 record, the Frosh Basketball team once again posted a winning season. Under the coaching of Mr. Jim Cockrill, the Pirates had a good shot at the league title, but two heartbreaking one-point losses smashed their hopes. Leading scorers were Bill Costa and Bill Whetzel; Mark Harris was named best defensive player, Tom Keyburn most inspirational; and Robert Barrett most improved.

5. Steve Shoitsu puts the "hold" on his opponent in the 105 pound class.

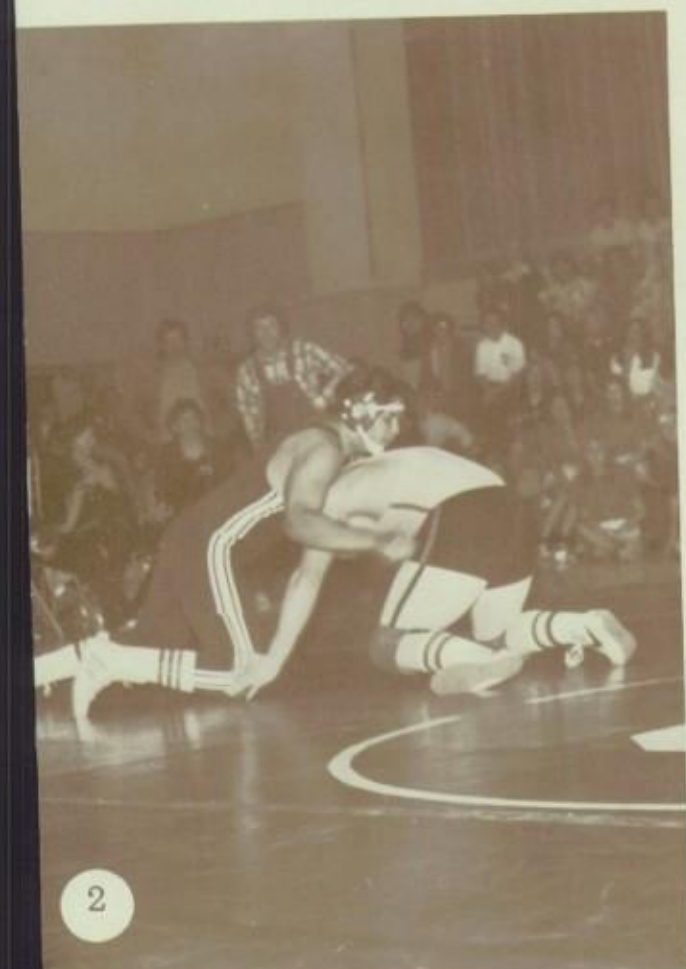

New faces and young participants marked the appearance of the wrestling team this year. The Pirates finished the season with a 5-5 record. Despite losing many close matches, the Pirates were in every one down to the finish. Injuries and other misfortunes diminished the team's hopes of another league championship. The team had a good pre-season, finishing strong in tournament play and racking up wins over Chino and St. John Bosco. Norman Dubois was named Most Valuable Player; he took the league title at 136 pounds and had an outstanding record of 7-0. Dave Moody finished with an excellent league record of 6-1. Sophomores Steve Shoitsu and Steve Salcedo placed high in the SGVL finals. One of the highlights of the season was the match against Lynwood, where every Pirate wrestler pinned a man, and they thrashed the Knights by a record score of 10 to 0. With the coaching of Mr. Bob Witham and a lot of hard work, next year should be a successful season.

They Give Their All for Baseball

"Pitching is the key," said Coach Danny Blake. "If the pitching can keep us in the ball game, we can win." Last year they ended up in a fourth place tie with a six and eight record. This year they had three returning lettermen and several experienced players from the J.V. team. They were a little low on their hitting, but their defense was very strong. They looked forward to a very promising year.

You Can't Win With Luv

Ending the pre-season with a 7-2 record, the 1976 Varsity Tennis team was one of the strongest teams PHS has had. The returning lettermen were Richard Cornett, Ken Duran, Oscar Flores, Rommel Garcia, and Tony Meyer. During the summer, seven players and Coach Paul Castillo attended tennis camp at Brigham Young University, in Salt Lake City. This year, for the first time at PHS, an exchange student, Guillermo Prado joined the team.

J.V.S Are Strongest Ever

With two returning players, David Bosley and Carlos Hernandez, the JV Tennis team had some exciting matches. They ended 6-3 in pre-season and were tough competitors in the SGVL. The team had a lot of outstanding ninth graders. Some of the players went to tennis camp with the varsity team in the summer of '75. In order to do this, they earned money and received donations. The team was coached by Mr. Larry Wilk.

Track came back this year with a fairly strong team. At the Long Beach Relays, the Pirates' mile-relay team took second place in competition with approximately twenty other schools. With a young team and many beginners, participants set out to find the track and field events which were right for them. As the season progressed, they gained confidence and skill.

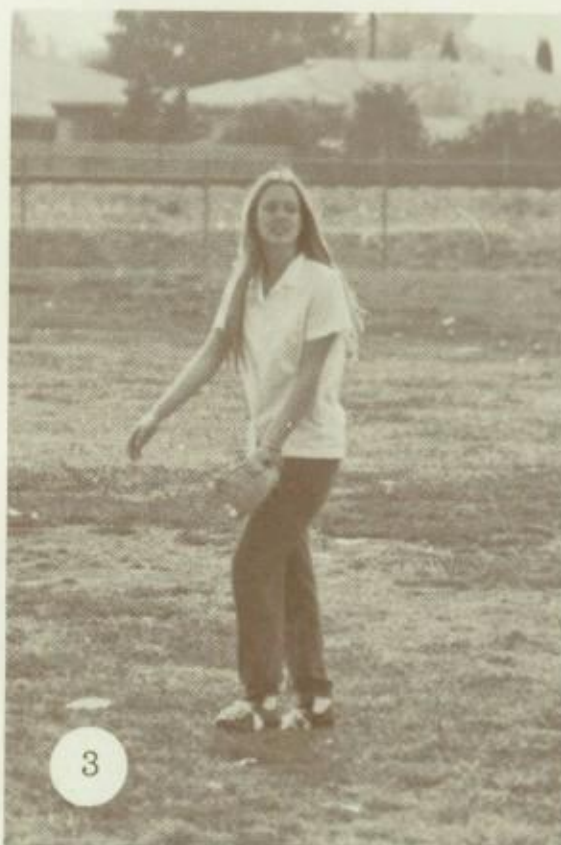

1. John Jackson sprints final 50 yards to beat his opponent in the 440-yard run.
2. Painfully but happily, Phil Terrell crosses finish line to beat his Brethern opponents.
3. Stretching to clear the bar, John Jackson eventually wins in the high jump.

Three Strikes, You're Out!

The Varsity Softball team had a young squad with only five returning players. They were Bridget Barnabei, Lupe Figueroa, Tami Hayworth, Judy Hooper and Shari Sweet. After having a great season last year, the girls looked forward to achieving a record as good or better than the last. The J.V. team also had a young team with only six returning players. They were Laura Dominguez, Leslie Erickson, Esther Gonzales, Minerva Perez, Yolanda Roberta and Dottie Russell. The girls all hoped for a very successful season.

Fall Sports

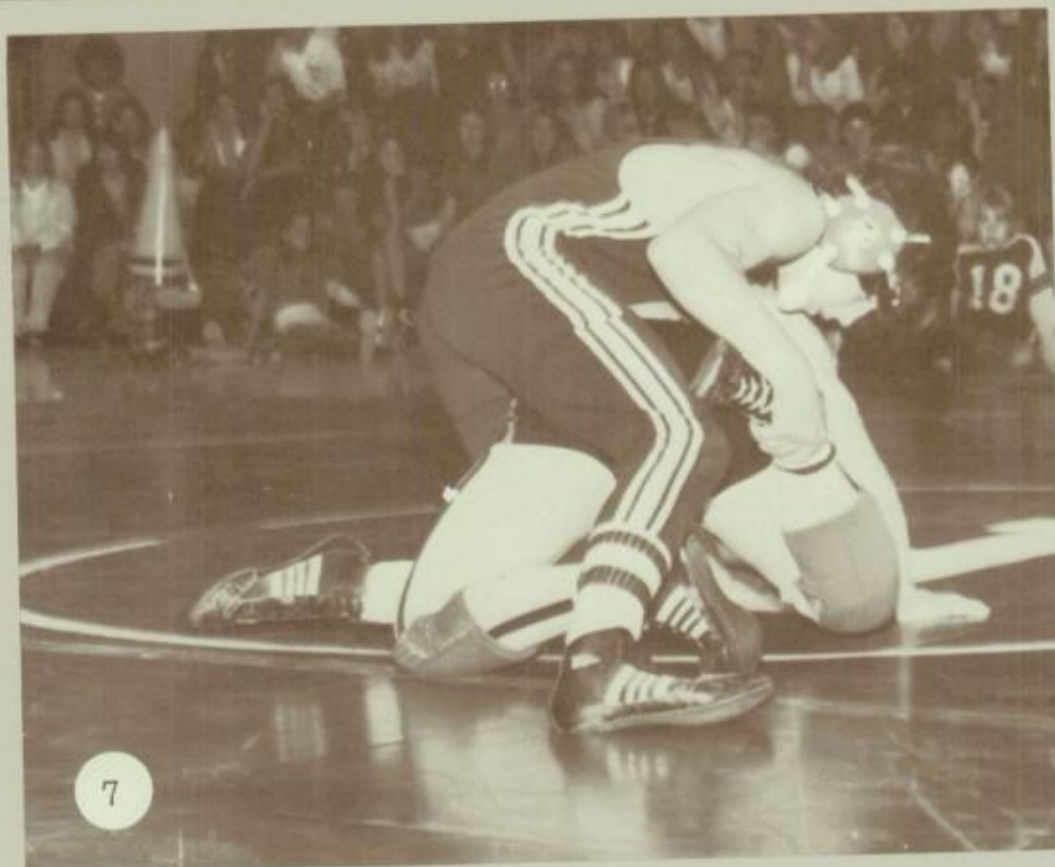

A Homecoming victory for varsity highlighted the football season which ended 3-6 this year. The freshman team excelled, finishing second in league competition. The sophomore and junior varsity squads were combined for play because of a short turnout. Girls' varsity volleyball had a slow season, but the JV's did extremely well winning 12 of 14 games and placing second in league. Off to a running start, cross-country placed second at the end of competition and third at the Mayfair Invitational. Girls' varsity and JV tennis had disappointing seasons, but they have high hopes for next year.

Winter Sports

The varsity basketball team had a tough season ending 4-10. The JV's finished strong with an 8-6 record for the season. The sophomore and freshman teams did extremely well. The freshmen took a third place and ended the year 10-4. The sophomores took league title and won 12 of 14 games.

1975-76 Sports Review

In its third season, the varsity soccer team placed third in their league and ended the year 11-11. Three Pirates made the all-league team: Hector Ramirez, Arturo Palafox, and George Rodriquez. Both girls' basketball teams had slow seasons. Varsity and JV both ended with 4-10 records. With a young team this year, varsity wrestling finished their league competition 5-5.

Spring Sports

The varsity tennis team finished their pre-season with an outstanding 7-2 record. The five returning lettermen gave promise of a strong team. The JV team had three returning players. The JV's ended pre-season 6-3, an impressive record. The track team was slow in pre-season meets, but they hoped to pick up speed during league play. After having a super season and attending CIF preliminaries last year, the softball team looked forward to another good season. Varsity baseball placed fourth last season, and this year hoped to do better. The JV's, soph, and frosh teams did well in pre-season. The golf team was strong this year and hoped to improve.

More activities sponsored by the Associate Student Body helped highlight Paramount's celebration of the Bicentennial. The spectacular homecoming game displayed a colorful half-time show, which was highlighted by an array of fireworks. The Homecoming dance theme was "The Spirit of America." ASB also sponsored movies, which were shown at Clearwater Auditorium; a special assembly featuring Eddie Motter, the great blind gymnast; and a special dance concert featuring Papa Du Run Run.

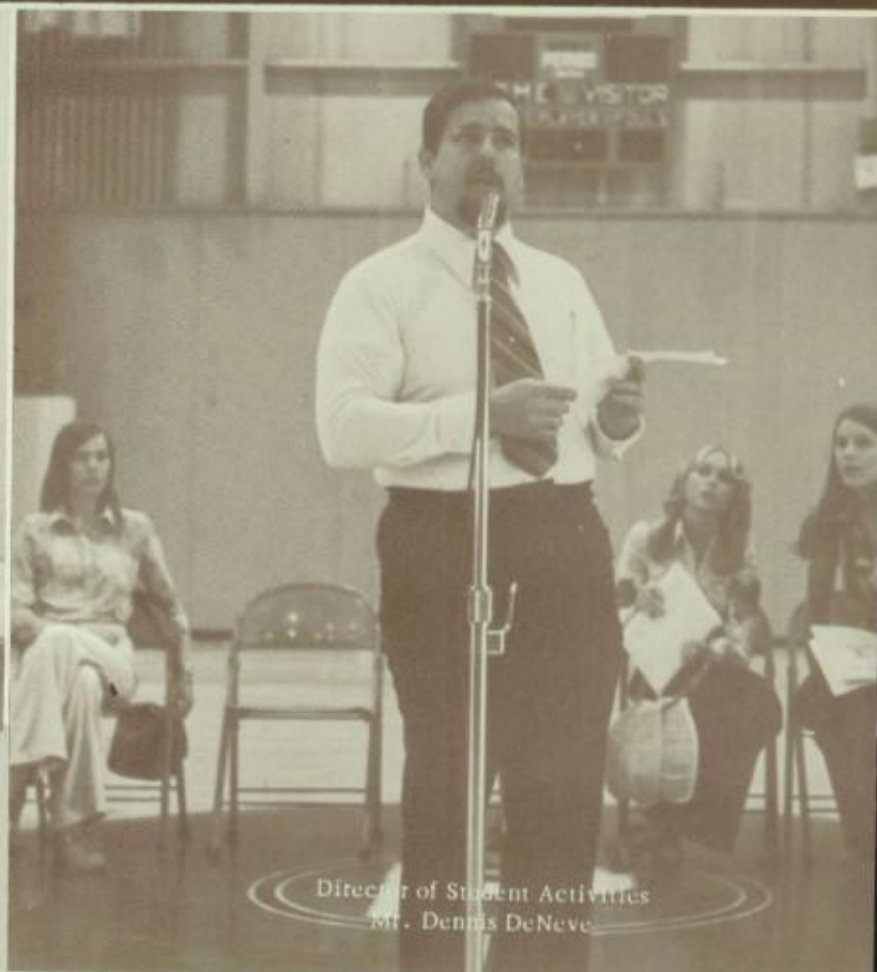

ASB's goal was to make a better student council to represent the student body's wants and needs.

Willing to Serve

Ushering at Back-to-school night, serving at various banquets, and co-sponsoring the Senior Mothers' Tea, Corsaires were active once again this year. They promoted school spirit by selling champ tags, pins, and game programs during football season; and for the first time they sold basketball champ tags and pins. The always hilarious donkey basketball game was followed by another first this year, "The Donkey Dance." Mrs. Mary Lash, the Corsaire sponsor, was always willing to give a hand as well as encouraging advice.

Reaching Out

Learning new languages, exchanging ideas and sharing new experiences with people from another country were just some of the many activities of exchange students and Sister City members. This year's greatly increased membership led to more group activities including monthly outings to points of interest, and Christmas and Halloween parties. The sponsor of this very active club was Mrs. Roberta Brashear.

Speaking Out

The Paramount High Speech Club had a rewarding season. Debbie Bailey, Tony Meyer and Sandra Miller placed first, second and third respectively in the Voice of Democracy contest. Members entered other speech contests such as the Jim Gwin Memorial contest and Lions Club contest. The Speech Club entered competition in several divisions: oratory, dramatic interpretation, debate, extemporaneous, impromptu, after dinner speaking and humorous interpretation.

It's Your Move

Unable to find another school to compete with, the Chess Club kept a competitive edge by competing with each other. Under the direction of sponsor Russell Murphy and President Sandra Miller the Chess Club enjoyed many exciting matches after school.

Understanding Campus Complaints

The purpose of Intergroup Council was primarily to "talk out" and hopefully prevent some of the problems which have arisen and are likely to arise on our campus. It was not a decision making body, but it was a voluntary group of students open to all or any student representative of any club or group. Mr. Richard Orcutt sponsored Intergroup Council. Some topics discussed were student lounge, smoking area, taxation on clubs. Any student could get involved!

1. Mr. Richard Orcutt and Tony Castaneda review campus events.
2. Students gather in circles to discuss recent problems.
3. Mr. Russ Murphy and students talk over conflicts.

Learning While They Teach

Students interested in teaching find being in the Future Teachers of America Club helpful. Their assignment may be as an aide to a social studies teacher. The boys run a physical education program at Clearwater, and members work with individual students who speak only foreign languages.

4. Brenda Meyer, Mr. Bob Maras' aide, checks roll.
5. Mr. Maras gives a suggestion to the club.
6. FTA meeting at snack.

Advertising

1. "I don't think it's going to work," says Jerry Davis to Neil Chitwood. Let Marshall's Lock & Ski help you with your ideas.
2. Students having lunch at MacDonald's on Rosecrans near the school. It is patronized often by PHS students.
3. Wall Street, as it was in the good ol' days.
4. Rosemary Salazar and Steve Biondo browse through McCracken's Pharmacy on Paramount Blvd.

Paramount . . .

A city that's going places.

"Paramount, where's that?" A few years ago this was a familiar line heard by many. This is no longer the case. Paramount is an ever-changing city that is always growing and improving the way of life for the many Americans in this mini-metropolis. Serving the people of Paramount is a staff of well-trained professionals that keep the community tuned to a fine hum. Because of the great variety of businesses in Paramount, people living here not only shop but work in the city as well. Yes, we've come a long way, but watch out, we're still going strong!

1. Old Glory waves over the Armed Services Memorial on the corner of Colorado Ave. and Jackson.
2. Paramount General Hospital has served the community in many ways. It also supplies training for our Vocational Medical Assistants program.
3. This sign on our post office proudly displays our city's name.
4. Got a problem? The City Hall has the answer. The staff working for the city is ready to help meet the needs of the community.
5. One of the many serene and beautiful parks in the city of Paramount.

Congratulations and our very best to the ladies and fellas of the Class of 1976. The 1976 graduating class is ready, willing and able to keep America rolling, on this our 200th birthday. With God's help and Paramount High's preparation, the Class of 1976 can't miss!

Expression is the art of communicating to others what you feel, how you feel, and why. Anger, love, happiness - all are expressed in words, written or spoken. From the simplest word to the most complex poem, thoughts and memory blend together to create an image of someone's dream. Warm embraces, whispered words, familiar faces - all these things are shared by those who cared.

2. Flower pot and mirror made by Senior Raymond Sanchez.

The Gold Ring

Gerda didn't know what had awakened her. The only noise was Freide's even breathing. It was very dark; there was no moon. Why was she awake? There it was, a pebble cast against her window. Was it Papa? "Please let it be him," she whispered as she crept to the window, trying not to wake her sister. Baby Freide was the most beautiful of the Wust children, but Gerda was Papa's favorite.

Gerda slowly opened the window and leaned half of her six-year-old body out. There he was. Papa. It had been months since she had seen him last. She giggled.

"Gerda, my love, did you miss me?" he shouted.

"Shh, they are all asleep. Very much, Papa, and Mutti, too. She says so all the time," she whispered softly. Gerda did not want anyone waking up and spoiling her few moments alone with him.

She looked at him. Mutti was right. Freide did look like him. He was tall. And strong. He could hold Gerda and Walter up, each in one hand, and bump their heads on the ceiling. They would always scream, as if in great pain, and then shriek with laughter when he thought they were hurt. His hair was dark brown and curly. His eyes were almost black, and they could look right through you.

"Papa, Papa, did you bring me a present? You said you would?" Now she was very excited.

"Now you be quiet, baby. Yes, I brought a present for you, but you must not boast. I could not get any for your brothers or Freide. Now go get your mother, it's cold out here."

As the door opened, cold air rushed in, and so did Papa, right into Mutti's arms. She was crying. Then it was Gerda's turn. He lifted her into his arms and spun her around and around. She laughed gleefully.

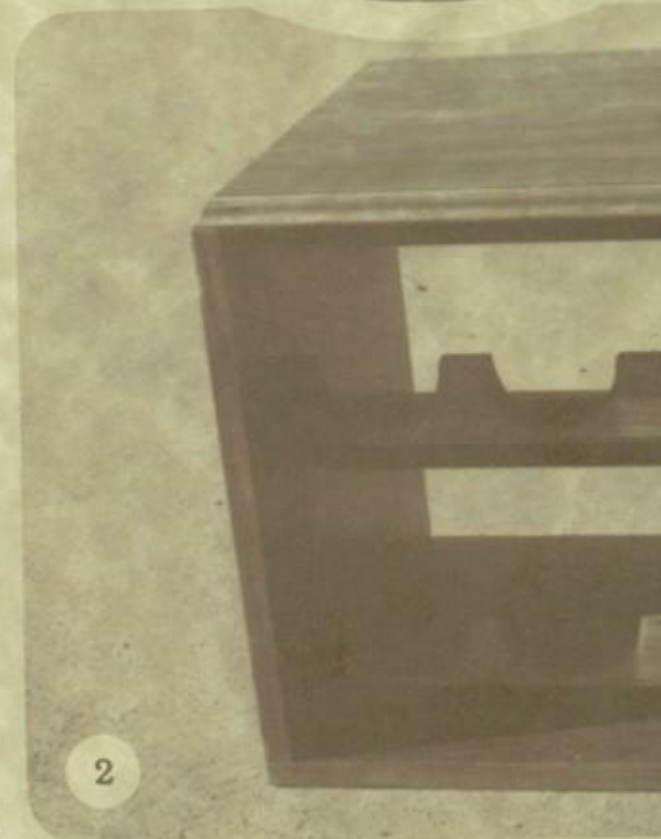

He put her down and gave her a small, tissue wrapped package. Inside was a tiny gold ring, so pure that when her fingers heated it up, it would bend into funny positions. Tears filled her eyes. "Oh, Papa, it's beautiful, just like a little wedding ring."

He laughed and turned to greet Fritz, Walter, and Manny, who were just coming down the stairs. Mutti had gone up to get Freide.

The two days Papa was home were filled with laughter and happiness. It was the last time Gerda would ever see him. All she had to remember him by was his face in her mind and the gold ring on her finger.

The ring is gone now, but through all these years she still hasn't forgotten his face.

The Road

The grass alongside the road's great edge is green as a toad's rough skin.

The road's dirty face is a dark brown
Just like the outskirts of a small, meek town.

The road itself that's brown and green
Isn't really as it seems.

No One Knows the Pain

No one knows the pain,
of having nothing
and losing everything.

There I was, alone
with only myself,
feelings on a shelf.

It appeared to me
no one seemed to care,
no one dared to share.

So I was left here
with only myself,
feelings on a shelf.

I owe you nothing,
no explanation,
no reason, I've none.

Now you have found me
with only myself,
feelings on a shelf.

Why did you kill me?
I just had nothing,
and you everything.

You've read this poem
with tears of sorrow,
least you've tomorrow.

Cyndy Helzer - '76

There Will Be Time

There will be time
For a second trip,
A trip for two to paradise,
You and I, alone,
Within the walls of Eden,
The second time,
The second trip.

There will be time
To listen, smell, touch, gaze
The song of the swallow,
A sweet, sweet rose,
Our Heavenly Father,
A shower of sun cast upon us,
Together.

There will be time
To walk hand in hand,
To pause for only a moment,
And kiss, gently,
To take in all the wonders of
paradise,
To take in, wholly, each other.

There will be time
For always,
Forever,
To remember,
To look into each other's eyes,
and know,
Once again we were in paradise,
Together.

Heaven

If heaven could see you here with me, then heaven I'll want to go.
But if heaven should see you away from me, then heaven I just don't know.
Life after death is very nice, at least that's what they say.
But heaven without, I'll have to think twice, 'cause
I'll be alone anyway.
The situation is rough, it's bad enough to miss out on the peaches and cream.
But if I miss your love, by going above, then I blew the most important thing.

Ann Gresham - '77

Good-bye Forever

It's time for me to leave
So I'm telling you goodbye.
This is hard for me to do,
And I'm trying not to cry.

I knew that this would happen, that one day we'd have to part. My love for you still lingers, and that's what's breaking my heart.

I know you don't mean to hurt me, but you've found another girl. So I'd like to wish you both all the luck in the world.

You know that I still love you, I guess I always will.
There's an empty spot in my heart that only you can fill.

Please don't interrupt me,
This I have to say. You've got to know my feelings,
Before I go away.

The years flew by,
Unfortunately much too fast,
What we once had is now a thing of the past.

Our love is just a memory,
That must now be disposed of. I'll try to forget you,
But I don't want another love.

Breaking up is too painful,
It hit like a bullet in my side. When you said that there was someone else, I could have fallen down and died.

Please don't try to apologize. You'll only put salt in the wound. I understand how you must be feeling, don't feel trapped or marooned.

You owe me nothing that you haven't already given. I had you for a few years,
That's what I call livin'.

Sonja Borup - '77

If a day suggested thoughts, what would you think of? If love was a blue bottle with a tight silver cap, how would you smile? If colors were only grey and green, could you explain yellow and orange? If there were no lights, could you find a star? If I were a pattern or just a cloud passing by, would you stop and give me your hand and take me home? I have often dreamed of days of myth, but you are real.

Joannie Hedgecoth - '77

King

I have named you King.
There are taller ones than you.
There are more handsome ones than you.

But you are King.

When you go through the streets, no one recognizes you.
No one sees your crystal crown,
no one looks.

No one sees the red carpet
you tread,
the nonexistent carpet;
no one looks.

And when you appear,
all rivers sound in my body;
bells shake the sky.

Only I, my love,
will ever hear that,
every time you walk by.

Are you wishing you were

Somewhere where time stands still?
Or did you just forget that I'm here?

Yearbook

Working on a stormy night and going to McDonald's in the rain, only to find out the main gate is closed and my shoes are soaked;
why do I do this?

Now it is eleven o'clock

Sandy Murashima - '76

Still you're staring, not seeing things as they really are.
Do you know I've always been here?
That I've been with you
forever?
Or is my forever just a fraction of your yesterday?

Somehow I feel I'm not reaching you.
Are you blocking me out of your mind?
Are you gazing past me?
Or simply gazing past reality?

I speak but you do not hear me.
Do you see something I cannot?
Could it be that your world exists?
And I am the one who is imagining?

Time goes on, as we reminisce on the past events, face the present situations, and prepare for the future happenings.
In twenty years, what is now the past will mostly be forgotten. What is now the present will be the past.
What is now the future will be the present, and we will begin preparing for the future.

Peggi Niedert - '76

Let's stop for just a minute and take a look at life.
It seems as if we don't care about who it's going to hurt but rather how will it help us. We cannot continue going on this way, and the time to do something about it has already passed. Even though it's too late we might still be able to salvage the mess we have gotten ourselves into. Stop and think about it. If we all do, it might get better.
If we do not, it will get worse.

The End

The moon, the sun,
The glaring light,
The blood of men
Stood in the night.

The fallen buildings
The broken glass,
The mangled trees
The burnt up grass.

The war we feared
Had come to be,
The war that ended
You and me!

And what I do;
What lies ahead
No one knows.

Look to the future
And be proud to live,
Forget the past
And what you did.

Graduation

The days go by, graduation comes near; and though I don't know why, great is my fear.

The times have been good,
and I've made many friends;
the end is now close, yet I don't want it to end.

That day will be sad,
dressed in a cap and gown;
the day I graduate, the tears will fall down.

The Road Home

Defend thy children
Keep them ever near and safe
They are the future

Ane Astredo - '76

Everything becomes possible in a child's dream world because he can think imaginatively and positively, harmonizing the possible with the impossible. By learning to think freely like a child, we can expand the horizon of possibilities for ourselves.

A nimble paw breaks through the winter's thaw to reveal water flowing.

A velvety nose
breathes in a scent of rose to perceive its rapid growing.

A waggy tail
follows down the trail toward master's warm fire.

A careful scratch,
an opening of the latch leads the servant to retire.

Kristy Hopson

Mi Rosa Roja

Every morning when I woke up I would look out my window and see a beautiful red rose, and on its lonely stem was a lonely thorn. You know, every time I see that rose, I think of you, of me, of us. You were the beautiful red rose with all your morning glory, and the dew trickling down your face to melt into your soul. And as if nature planned the course it would take. I looked beneath your skin, and into that soul, and saw that I was the one lonely thorn. The rose died yesterday, and I cried and begged it to come back to life. But it only withered more until there was nothing left but the thorn. How can things die so fast, leaving nothing but a tear running down a cheek, only to be forgotten in the future. By the way, the thorn is gone now. I buried it today next to the rose. Along with the thorn went my heart. I never want to walk through a rose garden again, or caress the petals, or smell the sweet beautiful smell of a rose.

What Is Love?

Love is a hand
Held fast in your own.
Love is a kiss,
The sweetest you've known.
Love is the joy
You feel from the start.
Love is a dream
You keep in your heart.
Love is the world,
That's peopled by two.
Love is beautiful,
Love is you.

A Yearbook

Full of memories,
Good times and bad,
Remembering forever
All the fun you've had.
The soc-hops and games,
The Sadie's and the prom.
The dinner for dad and
The senior tea for mom.
Remembering things years from now. That's what a Yearbook is all about.

Sheryl Bulkley - '76

Through memories' eyes
We chase yesterday's dreams.
Reliving for tomorrow, Growing strong for days to Come, learning from past Mistakes, accepting what is Gone, for it will be nevermore.
Tomorrow is ours,
Not yesterday.

A Red, White and Blue

1. Deadlines are rarely met without a yearbook work night. Staff members sometimes spend 8 hours a day working on pages.

2. Jolly Roger Staff members gather to enjoy red apples and "blue" goodbyes.

3. Tom Norlega and Lori Simpson search for lost pictures while Peggi Niedert scrunches between them to look for hidden negatives.

4. Section Heads Steve Smith and Kristy Hopson attempt to ignore Ane Astredo, Sandy Murashima, and Donna Blackman, other Section Heads. Being the head of a section is a big responsibility, and many students crack under the strain.

5. Mrs. Jenneive James laughs after the deadline has been met.

6. Eileen Brashear patiently alphabetizes class portraits in Freshman section. Hours of tedious work go into class section with stamping and identifying hundreds of class portraits.

7. Editor-in-Chief Cyndy Helzer laughs gaily as a prize-winning photo is taped on the chalk board.

Goodbye!

The Bicentennial has finally arrived. Never again will we be able to see a celebration of this kind. We dedicate the '76 Jolly Roger to the 200th birthday of our country. A lot of time, work, and pride went into this yearbook. My warmest gratitude goes to Mrs. Jennieve James for her patience with us crazy people on staff; to Mr. Robert Broyles and Mr. Gene Myers for their contributions of pictures; to Debbie McCormick for her help with special copy; and to Mr. Jim Gunn and Pace Studio for great photography.

I want especially to thank the '76 Jolly Roger staff for wonderful memories: lost pictures, creative copy, active discussions, lively work nights with delicious food, and the bond between us to do what's best for the book! Celebrate!

Mr. La Bin,

It was fun being in your class. Even though I very seldom came I enjoyed it. I wish you the best of luck with next years Sr's cause you'll need it.

Mr. La Bin,

It been nice
been in your class althoug your teach like you do. I think
I learn something.
But I really enjoy
been in this class

To Mr. Zabin
I'm really glad I had you for my English teacher. You have been so understanding with me and my health problems. I hope you have a nice summer. Goodbye for now. "tyb"
